What Bugs You?

Become an Inventor!
An inventor is someone who thinks of new ideas to make life easier or better through inventions!

What Bugs You?
Please list six problems you have that “bug” you:

1. __________________________________________
2. __________________________________________
3. __________________________________________
4. __________________________________________
5. __________________________________________
6. __________________________________________